Job Posting –Associate Veterinarian
January 2017

Want to be appreciated and expand your skills while joining a dynamic team?

Leesburg Veterinary Hospital is an AAHA-accredited practice located in Northern Virginia, near suburban Washington D.C., VA horse and wine country, and the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains. Our 10,000 square foot state-of-the-art facility, with the newest advancements in veterinary technology, is the optimum environment to assist a practitioner in providing the highest standard of care. We are proud to offer six exam rooms, a large treatment and triage area, two surgical suites, a dental suite, digital radiography, including digital dental radiology, ultrasound, a full in-house laboratory and a fully-stocked pharmacy. Our support team includes Licensed Veterinary Technicians, Veterinary assistants, technician assistants, client care representatives, and a full administrative staff. Our practice owner is a Diplomate of the American Board Practitioners.

Education and Experience:

- Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (DVM or equivalent) from an accredited university
- Licensed to practice veterinary medicine in the state of Virginia—in good standing
- Excellent communication skills
- Minimum of one year experience with a variety of medical cases, surgery, and dental skills

We are looking for a candidate who is professional, compassionate, patient, friendly, and promotes a positive work environment. The candidate must also be reliable, dependable, detail-oriented, be able to multi-task and love pets and their people too! In return, we nurture and promote team members' individual strengths, talents, and professional goals.

To learn more about our practice and our core values, visit our website at www.leesburgvet.com.

We offer a generous compensation package that includes CE allowance, medical benefits, paid time off, a competitive base salary with production percentage, and more!

If you are interested in joining our team and assist us in taking our practice to the next level, please send your resume with a cover letter to info@leesburgvet.com.
